B. ReadingReading Comprehension*2) Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

Have you ever heard of Priscilla Sitienei? It was my first time to know about her when I heard a report on the radio. It said that a woman had started primary school at the age of 90! The woman lives in a rural village in Kenya. When she was younger, she couldn't go to school. She was a nurse for 65 years. Although she was good at her job, she never learned to read or write. In 2003, primary school became for free in Kenya for the first time. Priscilla decided to go to primary school with six of her great grandchildren. She said that it was never too late to learn. She wanted to inspire other adults to do the same. Now she is learning and wears the same uniform as her fellow pupils.

The principal of the school said that every pupil loved Priscilla. They all wanted to learn and play with her. At break, she tells the other pupils about the customs that she grew up with. At the end of the report, Priscilla said that she wanted to tell the world's children that with education, they could be whatever they wanted. She is certainly a remarkable woman
